La Mezcla
1941

1932

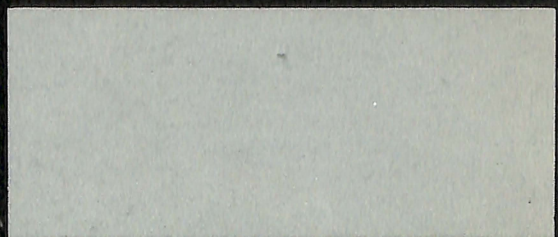

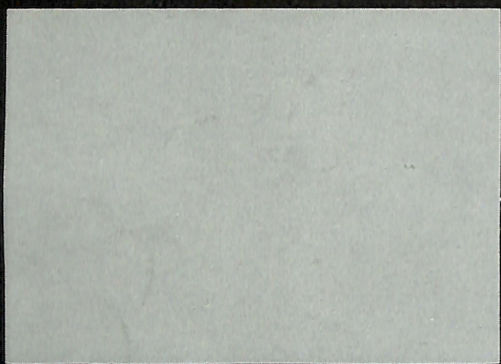

Before the turn of the century, "The Armijo Student" was published four times a year. About 1910 the yearbook emerged under the title "Mezclah". The staff of 1916, wishing to be accurate, sent a letter to the University of California inquiring whether "Mezclah" was the correct spelling. It was found that no Spanish word ended in "H" and that Mezclah was a colloquialism. Since 1916, the yearbook has been published under the title of "La Mezcla".

A line is perceived to have no shape or form. It possesses only one characteristic--infinite length. Yet by placing segments horizontally, vertically, and perpendicular to each other, shapes begin to appear. An individual figure is formed with the dimensional elements of depth, width, and breadth.

This years Junior Varsity squad had a disappointing season, turning in a record of one win, and eight losses, at the seasons end. A lack of experience and repeated injuries to key players hurt the club badly.

The seasons highlight was a 12-12 tie with Washington, a game which makes it look like the future may be brighter for Armijo football than it seems, as Washington entered a perfect season record, posting no losses.

Many of this year's starting lineup were Freshmen, who will be back next year to form the nucleus of a strong Junior Varsity team.

The big annual game with Vacaville was a 40-13 loss, as Vaca rallied behind quarterback Bob Briggs to smear the Junior Indians.

While the Frosh had a slow year, turning in a season record of one win and five losses, they joined the varsity squad in drubbing Vanden, coming out on top, 14-13.

Outstanding player this year was half-back Mark Smith, a hard-running player who should show excellent form on next year's Junior Varsity team.

Due to faulty editor-photographer-team connections, no team picture is available for the Freshman football team this year.

The wrestling squad this year, under coaches Peterson and Jensen, showed vast improvement over past teams since the sport was founded at Armijo four years ago. The team held victories over local rivals Fairfield, Vallejo, Hogan, and came within five points of setting Vanden for the City Team Championship. Four grapplers, Sam Laureta, Ken Peterson, Dan Sumner, and Dempsey Berryhill medaled in the Delta League finals. These same wrestlers plus Richard Fisk gained All-City honors on a team that shows great promise in the future years.

It all began in September, 1963. Leading our class were officers Barbara Nesbitt, Bob Quan and Mary Montee. Freshmen cheerleaders were Joann Bradley, Donna Covey and Maureen Murphy. Daun Conger reigned as freshman Basketball attendant.

Within the course of the summer, we "timid" freshmen were transformed into "mighty" sophomores. Class officers were president, Daun Conger; vice-president, Cheryl Reynolds; and secretary Katy Herbert. J.V. cheerleaders were Ada Bond, Donna Covey and Susan Goodman. Colleen Nygard was elected to the court of MaryJo Baldetta and, in the spring, Susan Knoff attended Basketball Queen, Sandy Nygard, "Surfer's Holiday" was the theme of our Hop which proved to be a huge success.

Finally becoming upper classmen, we elected Jim Houghton, Doug Wiseman and Cheryl Reynolds as class officers. Breaking tradition again Donna Covey became a varsity cheerleader.

6.

PomPon girls were: Susan Knoff, Linda Caruso, Robin Hewitt, Colleen Nygard, Carole Romer, and Maureen LaPlante. Mascots were Debbie Russell and Ada Bond. Class rings arrived after Christmas and were proudly displayed. "Shower of Flowers" set the stage for the Junior-Senior Prom which had standing room only. Mary Montee was the Armijo representative to Girls' State during the summer of that year. To serve during the reign of Queen Cris Almany, we elected Linda Levy as Junior Attendant.

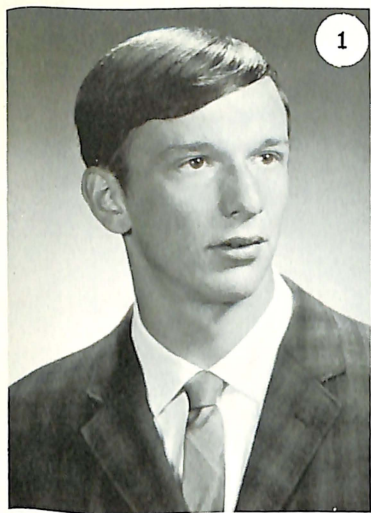

Later in the year, Peggy Magee was chosen to serve under Basketball Queen Vicki Hannes. And thus, our past history comes to an end.

The Freshmen's first experience of Armijo's school spirit was the annual Frosh-Soph Scramble. Sack races and the traditional tug of war kept the classes busy in competition. Highlight of the afternoon was the catching of a greased pig. Sophomores slightly edged the Freshmen and won the scramble.

G.A.S. officers as well as it's members displayed their talents in a memorable way. Through these talents, many girls could find out what the boy of their choice was really like. With the help of Mr. Brophy and Mr. Shatusky an evening of fun and enjoyment resulted.

The dog, Lowell was born and raised to the age of twelve weeks on the campus of Guide Dogs for the Blind in San Raphael. Then the dog was put on loan to Janis to raise and train last year as a 4-H project. After six months of extensive training at the school, Lowell graduated this year with his new master.
